

Meet the class representatives for Academic Year 2024-2025

Hala Abi Saad – P4 Class Representative

Hala Abi Saad is currently a professional year 4 (P4) pharmacy student at the Lebanese American University (LAU) School of Pharmacy, PharmD Class of 2025. She graduated in Spring 2024 with a B.S. in Pharmacy with Distinction. She is currently serving as a P4 Class Representative for the Fall 2024 Cohort.

From 2022 to 2024, Hala was an active member of the NAPHAS Club. She is currently the Chairperson of the Co-Curricular Activities (CCA) Newsletter Committee for the 2024-2025 academic year, where she contributes as a writer, designer, and editor. In this role, she demonstrates strong leadership, communication, and strategic planning skills, ensuring seamless coordination among members to produce high-quality newsletters.

Passionate about continuous learning, Hala embraces every opportunity to grow, believing that the more she learns, the better she can serve patients. She is committed to proving that pharmacists are, above all, patient advocates—upholding integrity in every step of their journey, beyond the business aspects of the profession.

Aspiring to broaden her expertise, Hala plans to work abroad for a few years to refine her skills and bring back valuable knowledge to enhance patient care in Lebanon.

Outside of academics, she enjoys skiing, exploring nature, listening to music, and appreciating life's simple moments.

Hind Mekary – P4 Class Representative

Hind Mekary graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy from the Lebanese American University (LAU) School of Pharmacy in 2024. She is currently pursuing her Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) degree and completing her clinical rotations at Nebraska Medicine. As the Class Representative for the UNMC Fall Cohort, Hind is dedicated to fostering collaboration and leadership among her peers.

Beyond her academic and professional commitments, Hind is actively engaged in community service. She is a member of Men Alex Yves NGO and the Equipe Missionnaire, where she contributes to various charitable initiatives.

In her free time, Hind enjoys traveling, exploring new cultures, and expressing her creativity through cooking and baking. Upon graduation, she aspires to pursue a career in community pharmacy, where she hopes to make a meaningful impact on patient care and public health.

Kevin Bosnoyan – P4 Class Representative

Kevin Bosnoyan graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy from the Lebanese American University (LAU) School of Pharmacy in 2024. He is currently pursuing his Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) degree and completing his clinical rotations at Houston Methodist. Passionate about healthcare and patient care, Kevin is dedicated to expanding his knowledge and expertise in the field.

Beyond his academic and professional commitments, Kevin has been actively involved in extracurricular and leadership activities. He has served as a Leader in Movement Chevalier De Marie since 2022 (@MCM_Batroun) and is a member of the NAPHASS and Volunteering clubs, demonstrating his leadership, teamwork, and commitment to service.

Kevin enjoys camping, swimming, and music, embracing outdoor adventures and creative expression.

Aya El Hawa – P4 Class Representative

Aya El Hawa is currently a student at the Lebanese American University (LAU) School of Pharmacy, pursuing a Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) degree.

She serves as the PharmD class representative for the academic year 2024-2025, as well as the representative for the Student Grievance Committee.

Beyond academics, Aya is passionate about animal care and skiing. She is currently volunteering with Hadeal, a national NGO dedicated to empowering and assisting vulnerable citizens across Lebanon.

Upon graduation, Aya aspires to establish her own pharmaceutical industry, focusing on innovation, quality, and accessibility in drug manufacturing.

Tracy Kakish – P3 Class Representative

Tracy Kakish is a professional year 3 (P3) student pharmacist at The Lebanese American University, School of Pharmacy, B.S. in Pharmacy Class of 2025.

She is serving as the P3 class representative for the academic year 2024-2025. Tracy is passionate about teaching, food blogging, and fitness. She currently holds the position of chairperson of the media subcommittee and actively volunteers with the municipality of Ain Jdide (Aley) as a student pharmacist, where she is responsible for dispensing medications to people in need. Upon graduation, Tracy aspires to pursue her PharmD degree and establish a career as a clinical pharmacist, dedicated to serving the community and providing patient-centered care.

Haya Rahal – P3 Class Representative

Haya Rahal is currently a professional year 3 (P3) student pharmacist at the Lebanese American University (LAU) school of pharmacy, B.S in Pharmacy Class of 2025.

Haya is a passionate and dedicated student, currently serving as her class representative for the second year. With a strong commitment to both academics and extracurricular activities, she balances her leadership role with her athletic pursuits in boxing and swimming. Driven by a deep interest in healthcare, Haya aspires to earn her PharmD degree, aiming to make a meaningful impact in the field of pharmacy. Beyond her studies and sports, she finds fulfillment in volunteering, always eager to contribute to her community and help those in need.

Ayah M. El Kurdy – P2 Class Representative

Ayah El Kurdy is currently a professional year 2 (P2) student pharmacist at the Lebanese American University (LAU) School of Pharmacy, B.S. in Pharmacy Class 2026. Ayah is serving as the P2 class representative for the academic year 2024-2025. Besides her coursework, Ayah enjoys traveling, learning new languages, and listening to music in her free time. Ayah is an active member of the LAU NAPHASS club, and she enjoys volunteering in various events. She has also volunteered, during her pre-pharmacy years, with the MMKN NGO as a chemistry teacher, where she has taught grade nine students in different Lebanese official schools. Ayah is also a member of the CCA “Co-Curricular Activities” committee in the School of Pharmacy. After finishing her BS, Ayah aims to pursue her PharmD degree to further develop her clinical skills and work as a clinical pharmacist serving the community with the highest standards of ethics, professionalism, and integrity. Upon graduation, Ayah is open to any job opportunities in Lebanon or Canada with the goal of improving patient care.

Elie Germanos – P2 Class Representative

Elie Germanos is currently a professional year 2 pharmacy student at the Lebanese American University (LAU) School of Pharmacy, B.S. in Pharmacy, expected to graduate in 2026. He is serving as a class representative for the academic year 2024-2025. Elie is very passionate about piano, DJing, fitness, and teaching. He regularly dedicates time to teaching students, helping them improve and build confidence. Committed to personal growth, he actively pursues his interests in music and fitness, finding balance through piano practice, consistent gym workouts and working as a DJ in his free time. Upon graduation, Elie plans to expand his expertise by earning a Master's degree in Marketing and pursue a career in pharmaceutical management, marketing, and business.

Marie-Ange Abi Chedid – P1 Class Representative

Marie-Ange Abi Chedid is currently a Professional Year 1 (P1) Student Pharmacist at the Lebanese American University (LAU) School of Pharmacy, B.S. in Pharmacy Class 2027. After volunteering as a class representative during the Pre-Pharmacy Year 2, she was nominated and elected as a class representative during the Professional Pharmacy Year 1. Marie-Ange is a highly dedicated student who is motivated and enthusiastic about learning. She also enjoys teaching and helping others. Marie-Ange's commitment to her passions is reflected in her 14-year long commitment to playing the piano, dancing, and singing in a choir. Upon Graduation, Marie-Ange aims to earn her PharmD, where she hopes to pursue a career as a Clinical Pharmacist contributing to the best possible outcomes in patient-centered care and the broader health field.

Maria A. Geagea – P1 Class Representative

Maria Geagea is currently a Professional year 1 (P1) student pharmacist at the Lebanese American University (LAU) School of Pharmacy, B.S. in Pharmacy Class 2027.
