

Meet the class representatives for Academic Year 2021-2022!

Professional Year 4 Class Representatives:

Hadil Mdaihy, P4 Class Representative

Elsa Waked, P4 Class Representative

Yara Bou Jaoudeh, P4 Class Representative

Rosy Issa, P4 Class Representative

"I am honored to represent my colleagues. This experience made me grow on the personal and professional level; I had the opportunity to invest in my leadership, time-management, problem solving and strategic communication skills."

Professional Year 3 Class Representatives:

Caline J. Saade, P3 Class Representative

"Being a class representative is not just about status or leadership, it is also about earning people's trust, learning how to listen, setting your differences aside and establishing a solid foundation to build upon for yourself as well as for the people you represent."

Amanda Rose Khater, P3 Class Representative

"Taking on the position of class representative has allowed me to rise as a leader during trying times, combining the opinions and necessities of many people, reaching compromises when needed, and coordinating with members of the department to make everyone's path to success effortless."

Professional Year 2 Class Representatives:

Maria Abou Hatem, P2 Class Representative

"I've been lucky beyond measure to represent not only my classmates, but people I have come to cherish and call my family. This opportunity has taught and bestowed upon me things - such as compassion, kindness, leadership skills, and active listening skills, among others - I will forever treasure knowing."

Marianne Bazzi, P2 Class Representative

"I've grown and learned so much in professionalism and leadership from my experience as a class representative. Over the time, I have come to cherish the people I call, more than my class, my friends and family. I have come to cherish their concerns and take on them as my own; solving problems makes me the proudest and happiest I can be. But most importantly, the ability to bring out the best in others and in myself stands as the best thing about being a class representative."

Professional Year 1 Class Representatives:

Marc Anlian, P1 Class Representative

“Serving as a Class Representative has taught me lessons in leadership, personal drive and ambition, and most of all, humility. I would say I’ve grown to become a better listener as a result of often finding myself at the middle of the communication lines; the task isn’t always easy, but every good leader has to be up to a good challenge - contented smiles make it all worth it.”

Yara Stephan, P1 Class Representative

“Being a class representative awakened the leader inside of me and made me want to take on the responsibility of ensuring that my colleagues are well represented and that all their concerns are well heard and well received by the School of Pharmacy.”

“A true leader has the confidence to stand alone, the courage to make tough decisions, and the compassion to listen to the needs of others. He does not set out to be a leader, but becomes one by the equality of his actions and the integrity of his intent.” ~ Douglas MacArthur
